

CONTENTS

INTERGENERATIONAL SOLIDARITY

Introduction	5
---------------------------	---

I. ARTICLES

Rafał Drozdowski Intergenerational solidarity – a seemingly right social policy postulate which has become increasingly troublesome	7
Zbigniew Woźniak Intergenerational solidarity in the ageing world – opportunities and threats	21
Witold Wrzesień Comebacks of subcultures and post subcultures and intergenerational relations in the family	65
Tomasz Szlendak Familiarity in the midst of misunderstanding. A hypothesis of intergenerational tolerant solidarity	75
Marek Krajewski Generations of things	91

* * *

Wojciech Łączkowski Liability of the Third Republic of Poland for the damage caused in the period 1944-1989	105
Robert Zawłocki Exclusion of prescription of offences committed by the functionaries of the Polish People's Republic	111
Mirosław Wróblewski Protection of the rights of the elderly in the activity of the Polish Ombudsman as a national human rights protection institution	123
Joanna Haberko Grandparents-grandchildren. A personal family tie in family law and an inheritance relation in the law of succession	139
Małgorzata Łączkowska Maintenance law as an example of a legal regulation pertaining to intergenerational solidarity	155
Maria Pieprzyk, Paulina Pieprzyk The elderly in the health care system	175
Elżbieta Maj Legal protection of the elderly	189

* * *

Paweł Łuczak, Józef Orczyk Economic conditions of changes in the forms of intergenerational solidarity. The case of long-term care in Poland	203
Joanna Ratajczak-Tuchołka Solidarity and pension reform in Poland in 1999-2011	217
Piotr Michoń Intergenerational transfers in family	237
Małgorzata Szczyt Natural change in population and age dependency in European Union member states (a comparative analysis)	253
Radosław Murkowski Pension age in the European Union in the context of age dependency ratio and life expectancy	267